Autumn Term | Issue No.4

Dear Holy Trinity community,

You would have been very impressed by our young ambassadors this week. Eight children from Year Six presented themselves to the school as potential Head Girls and Boys, a highly regarded and important role at the school. They spoke with such passion and professionalism. Voting was completed on Thursday afternoon and the winning children will be announced in Collective Worship on Monday morning.

In this Harvest season, we encourage our children to think about others who may be in need of help and support. Leviticus 19:9 says: 'When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.' It teaches us to use what we need, and share with those around us. We are looking forward to celebrating Harvest at Holy Trinity Church next week.

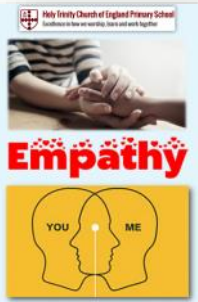

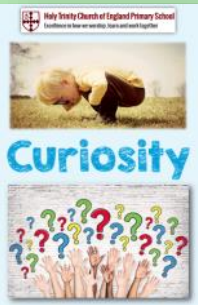

We hope you are enjoying our lovely woodland garden. On Wednesday, a team of gardeners came to give the space some love and care, removing any dead flowers and weeds. This weekend I will be going to Morden Hall to collect some unused flowers and plants from the Chelsea Flower Show, which will hopefully brighten up our environment even more. If you are a keen gardener and would like to help us, please do come and see me in the playground.

Thank you to our parents and carers for working hard to improve our punctuality (children arriving on time in the morning) this week. As you will see on page 6, we have had the best punctuality of the year so far. This improvement has meant the children have been able to access the equivalent of 150 minutes of extra learning compared to last week. Now, let's keep it up!

Wishing you all a fantastic weekend.

Kind regards,

Mr Winn

Learning in Focus

Year 3 had a super time in Stockwell on Thursday, studying the murals and the 10 foot high 'Bronze Woman' statue. This trip links to their curriculum theme 'Who's moving in? Who's moving out?', focusing on the history of Brixton and surrounding areas.

We are so lucky to have such vibrant culture on our doorstep.

This week we held our Head Boy and Head Girl Elections, the final eight candidates selected were given the opportunity to deliver a whole school presentation as to why they should be voted as this year's lead school ambassadors.

All eight pupils are worthy candidates and their presentations were heartfelt and inspiring.

Here are a few sentences from each of their presentations:

I believe to live out our school values of empathy we should all take care of each other and I would be happy to work with you if you need help.

If you have any ideas for this school to continue to be a great safe place to learn and have fun, you can come and I will discuss with the school council and together we will make this school an amazing place.

I know how to make us a strong independent team. I believe that we can achieve this if we work together in our classrooms, be ready for learning and produce amazing work, even if we find it difficult.

Our values - curiosity, hope, empathy, resilience, creativity and happiness- are one of the things that keeps our school together. Resilience is the value I think is the most important one, without resilience we won't be able to get anywhere. Resilience builds the wall of the other values.

I can assist people with their learning in class and personal progress. I can assist children with special needs. My caring side will also help me to look after the younger students. I am a strong leader who has the ability to listen to all students

The school means a lot to me therefore, it would be an honour if you would let me put my deepest hardest work into the school. I have great knowledge and understanding of the responsibilities for this role. Lastly, I will make sure everyone's voice is heard.

As it is my last year in this school. I would like to make it the best one - not just for me but for you all. Vote for someone who can be an advocate on your behalf, someone who will make good improvements

Our Closing Prayer

Thank you Lord for all our children, we thank for the children who have put themselves forward to be our new leaders. Guide them as they step into their leadership roles.

Parent Online Safety Survey Results

First of all thank you to everyone who has taken the time to respond to the computing survey that was recently sent out.

The feedback has been very useful. One suggestion is that more direct advice is provided to parents about what they can do to keep their children safe online.

National Online Safety have put together easy to follow instructions on how parents and carers can set up parental controls on iPhone and Android smartphone apps.
