Summer Term 2 Issue No.32

Dear Holy Trinity Community,

I am constantly impressed and proud of the enrichment opportunities our children are provided with at Holy Trinity.

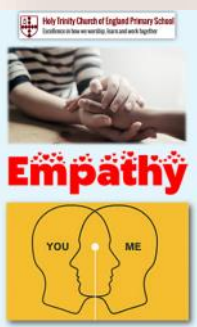

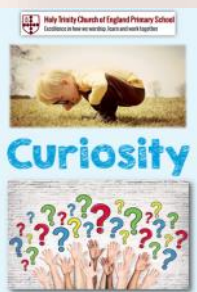

The quality of the educational visits is second to none. Every week some of our children have the chance to experience a visit that brings their curriculum learning to life, and our staff are experts at identifying places of interest to support this.

Just this week our Year 2 children had the opportunity to make their own healthy pizzas at Pizza Express as part of their Healthy Body, Health Minds curriculum pathway. Year 5 went to the British Film Institute to see Baroness Floella Benjamin speak, and look at the amazing new Windrush Monument at Waterloo Station. Memorable experiences that we hope will remain with our children for life.

Of course, these visits are not possible without the support of our wonderful parents and carers. Please keep giving us your time as we extend and deepen our children's learning during their time at Holy Trinity. It is so worth it.

Kind regards,

Mr Winn

What do you do when the Bible seems to say two things that lead you in two different directions?

Sometimes it can be quite challenging; other times it can be a real godsend. Take, for example, 1 Corinthians 13, which we've been looking at in collective worship. About half way through it says, "Love does not keep a record of wrongs."

Now most of the time we know just what this means: It means, "Don't store up all the ways that someone has hurt you because if you do that it will just lead to resentment. Instead, do your best to sort things out with the person."

However, there are times when the person hurting you is also controlling you. They might even be telling you that it's your Christian duty to forgive them, and to forget all the bad things they've been doing. It might sound like they're saying the right things, but really they're just controlling you.

Or it could be that bad things are happening to you and when you go to church the message is about letting things drop as if they didn't matter. But bad things do matter, so we can end up feeling conflicted inside.

Fortunately, further on in 1 Corinthians 13 – the very same passage - it says, "Love does not rejoice in evil, but rejoices in the truth." So if someone is hurting you – and especially if they want you to keep it a secret – this Bible passage on love speaks to us. Love doesn't let evil have its way. Love – true love – finds a way of letting the truth come out. You might feel bad for "telling on someone" but it's more important not to let wrongs things win.

In fact, many people find that it's only when they finally speak about the secret ways someone has been hurting them and bring the bad things out into the open, that they are able – finally – to be healed from that long record of wrongs.

Windrush 2022

WINDRUSH 2022

CELEBRATE IN LAMBETH

17 - 26 JUNE

Find out what's happening in your area at:
www.lambeth.gov.uk/windrush2022

THE WINDRUSH STORY

Between 1948 and 1971, West Indian migrants travelled to the UK to advance their socio-economic opportunities for themselves and their families remaining in the Caribbean. This group of people, known as The Windrush Generation, responded to an invitation from English officials to begin a month-long journey to England, the 'Motherland'.

Here, they have contributed to the rebuilding of England after World War 2, immensely impacting British culture and shaping the diverse society that we live in today. With many Caribbean migrants settling in Lambeth, it soon became their home and has remained the biggest community for their generation and their descendants.

Windrush Day on the 22nd June is a national commemoration of the first arrival of the 1027 passengers on board the HM Windrush. Windrush Festival 2022 in Lambeth will be a whole community celebration that will serve as a meaningful, educational and joyful tribute to the immense contribution to British life by the Windrush Generation and their descendants.

This year's theme is We Are Here. We Are Here invites us to learn about the history, stories, and experiences of the Windrush generation and their descendants, ensuring their legacy is recognised and celebrated across Lambeth.

Lambeth's Windrush celebrations will acknowledge and amplify the presence of the Windrush generation and their descendants within Lambeth, highlighting the contribution they continue to make to our community.

A proud and joyous reclamation of Black Britishness, We Are Here re-asserts what it means to belong, with Windrush stories taking centre stage in Lambeth's buildings, streets, and landmark institutions.

Whilst many aspects of Caribbean culture have been absorbed into mainstream British society, We Are Here challenges us to dig deeper into the rich and nuanced histories the Windrush generation brought with them, making visible their legacy in Lambeth's cultural fabric and our shared local DNA.

Audition Workshops for ROH Youth Opera

Audition Workshops for ROH Youth Opera Programmes 27th and 28th August 2022

The Royal Opera House is delighted to invite children aged 7-13 with a passion for the performing arts to audition for our Youth Opera programmes this August. No experience or knowledge of opera is required, just a love of singing and performing and an enthusiasm to explore and create opera with the ROH.

If you know a young person in state education who may benefit from our programmes, please read the following for more information on our programmes and how to register interest for an audition workshop. Please also consider forwarding to any individuals or networks who you think this will be of interest to.

ROH Youth Opera Programmes

There are two programmes available for young performers:

ROH Young Voices is a singing programme for 7-8 year olds, developing participants' vocal control, musical literacy and performing skills. As well as performing at concerts and other ROH events, participants receive gain a grounding in the skills required to progress into our older ensemble, the ROH Youth Opera Company. Audition workshops for the ROH Young Voices will be held on Saturday the 27th of August from 11-1pm

- ROH Youth Opera Company offers participants an all-round training in the performing arts, covering vocal technique, language coaching, acting and stage craft, musical literacy, and creative processes for developing new work. Auditions for the ROH Youth Opera Company will be held on Saturday the 27th of August from 2-4pm, and Sunday the 28th August from 11-1pm and 2-4pm.

Both groups meet for half day rehearsals on Saturdays during term time at Covent Garden and participate in an online music theory class after school on Wednesdays. A high level of attendance is expected so please bear this in mind when applying to join the programmes. For more information on the programmes and how they support the development of young performers watch this video.

TO REGISTER YOUR INTEREST

To give your child an insight into the ROH Youth Opera programmes we ask that you share with them our 'What is Opera' video workshop. Please note, this video includes some group activities which your child need not complete. Should they be invited to attend an audition workshop, they will need to be familiar with the song explored in this video as this will be explored further in the workshop. Our audition workshops are relaxed, welcoming spaces inviting attendees to explore opera with our YOC Associate Artists. Children may be asked to sing in small groups, but not on their own. Please note that audition places are limited and based on a range of considerations.

To register your child's interest in attending an ROH Youth Opera audition workshop:

1. Please complete this form
2. Please ensure your child has watched the 'What is Opera' workshop: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yUaHe1TRaKE&t=1s>
