Autumn Term | Issue No.3

Dear Holy Trinity Community,

It is Jeans for Genes Day at Holy Trinity, and I am sure our children loved getting into their favourite pairs of jeans today. It is all for a very good cause, and your sponsorship of our children all goes towards funding projects that provide nursing care, equipment, activity weekends, online support and counselling for those that live with, or have been affected by, genetic conditions.

Some genetic conditions are apparent at birth whilst others are diagnosed at different stages throughout childhood, adolescence and sometimes into adulthood, having a profound and lasting impact on individuals and their families.

The Jeans for Genes charity's ambition is that every individual, and their families, can access the right support at times when it's needed most. By taking part in Jeans for Genes week, we have all worked together to make this ambition a reality.

It was wonderful to welcome so many of our parents and carers to the Year 6 Secondary Transfer Meeting last Tuesday. Your attendance makes all the difference and ensures you and your children have the best possible information at your disposal.

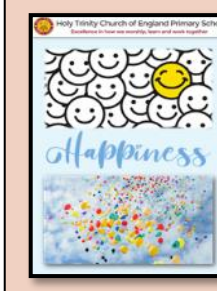

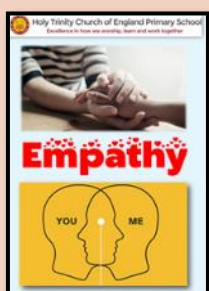

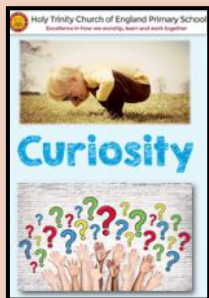

The next parent event is on Friday 30th September at 9am - the McMillan Cancer Support Coffee Morning. Having a Coffee Morning is the perfect chance to catch up over a cuppa and a slice of something delicious for a great cause. One in two of us will face cancer, and the money we raise at your Coffee Morning will help everyone with cancer to live life as fully as they can.

We are grateful to you for your support of these events.

Have a wonderful weekend.

Kind regards,

Mr Winn

Learning In Focus

Year 6 went on a day trip to the Museum of London Docklands.
Not only was it a thoroughly enjoyable day, but a lot was learned on how the Docks shaped today's City of London.

FAITH CORNER

This term in my assemblies we're looking at the story of Jonah, and each week we're learning a new song from a musical I wrote a while back.

Many years ago, in one of my previous churches, I was asked to baptise a child called Jonah. As I had songs from this musical, I thought it would be neat to make the whole service revolve around the Jonah story – how he was scared at first to do what God wanted, but how God found him and gave him the courage to fulfil his mission.

The parents of this baby boy were furious with me! "How dare you bring up all those negative stories about Jonah!" they said. "We want his life to be full of blessings!" I thought to myself, "Well, you were the ones who named him "Jonah!" The thing about the Jonah story is that it's all about blessing.

Jonah, like all of us, got scared; Jonah like all of us, disobeyed God; Jonah like all of us could be found by God and recommissioned; Jonah like all of us could renew his call and his courage. And even the wicked people of Nineveh get blessed in the end as well, because they also turn from their ways.

So this is a story of great triumph, even though it has unlikely beginnings.

Courage is an important theme in the story.

All around the world right now people need courage.

People in Russia speaking out against the war need courage. People in Tigray, Ukraine and other war-torn places need courage. People living in areas where climate change has destroyed their livelihood need courage. And people here in the UK need courage too as we face this cost of living crisis, or for any number of other reasons.

Are you in a situation where you need some courage?

God is always wanting to give us courage for all the situations we face.

Here's a prayer you might like to say:

Jesus, you were courageous and did not worry about what those who hated you would do to you. You only met them with love and with courage. You proclaimed that your father was the only one with the final say. Jesus, I ask you to help me develop the same courage that will help me be assertive in my decisions. May I say what I need to say without worrying that I would be judged or punished for it. You are my Lord who conquered it all. Amen.
