Autumn Term 2 Issue No.46

Dear Parents/Carers,

The Christmas Nativity Play – The Dinky Donkey

This week the children in early years and key stage one presented their Christmas production of the play 'The Dinky Donkey' to a packed audience of parents/carers.

The children gave an outstanding performance, each class sang their hearts out, wowed the school, their parents and carers with their fantastic singing, clear narrating and great acting.

A number of parents commented on how much they enjoyed the performance.

Thank you all for attending and thank you to all the class teachers and teaching assistants for all your hard work. Well done to all the children. You are all stars!

Christmas Service

Thank you to parents/carers and our school governors who were able to attend our Christmas Service which was held in our school hall due to the weather. It was a beautiful service with words of inspiration and prayers led by Reverend Dormandy and our Pupil Leadership team. Our Choir called HT Choir performed for the first time singing Revelation 19 1 led by Ms Katarina who has been working with the children for a couple of weeks. The melodious singing captivated all pupils and adults. It was simply beautiful. Thank you Ms Katarina for your musical direction.

Final Thoughts

Thank you for your amazing support since my appointment in September 2023. It has been wonderful to see parents/carers taking part in our workshops, family curriculum mornings, accompany classes on our amazing educational school visits, attend a range of meetings as well as class Collective worship, celebrations and most recently our PTFA Christmas Fayre.

Our staff team and governors strive to ensure all our pupils experience success in their learning and grow to achieve beyond their own expectations.

May we continue to grow in our partnership working together.

Philippians 4:13 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.'

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

Holy Trinity Values Ambassador

Our Pupil Values Ambassador this week is Sarai Dennis-Wilson

You were so empathetic towards another pupil when they needed support. Well-done.

Holy Trinity Staff Values Ambassador

Our Staff Values Ambassador this week is Ms Camilla Jeffery

Because of your dedication to all the children in your class, ensuring they all have equal access to the whole curriculum and the Christmas performance. Thank you.

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

This coming Sunday sees the 3rd Sunday in Advent as we build up to Christmas. This week we shall be looking at the last 2 aspects of our school's Values in line with Advent

CREATIVITY

Creativity is from God, and it's for God. As Christians we believe that we were created in the image of God and should live out the characteristics of God. We are reminded in the book of Ephesians 2: 10 that we are His workmanship created in Christ Jesus for good works.

We are thankful for His special gift of creativity, everywhere we go, in everything we can see God's wonderful, exciting creativity all around us. We are thankful that through God we are creative and imaginative people, may we use our creativity to glorify God and help to make the world a better place.

In the book of Exodus 36: 1-2, here we see the creativity of two men called Bezalel & Oholiab who were craftsmen. They were the ones that helped Moses build the Ark of the covenant. They built the ark using their creativity to reflect Gods template and purpose for the Ark

During the Christmas season let us be creative in how we can meet the needs of those around us who are less privileged and unable to afford Christmas gifts. We can reach out to others with items we have made ourselves as well as offer provisions, groceries, etc. This is being creative. When we engage our creative gifts, it delights God.

HAPPINESS

Psalm 144:15 tells us "Happy are the people whose God is Lord"

God is the true source of happiness, strength, hope and wisdom and true happiness can be found in God through Jesus Christ.

As we approach the festive season, God wants us to use this time not just to draw near to Him, but to be filled with His joy, love and peace.

As we all prepare to welcome in 2024, may we all experience the true happiness that comes from God.

Have a lovely Christmas and a Christ Centred New Year

See you in 2024!

Learning In Focus

Panther Class attended a Sports Inspired Multi-Sport Festival on Tuesday 12th December 2023.

Pupils competed in Taekwando and Boccia sports activities.
The activities provided the opportunity for all competitors to further develop their team building skills and learn about non-contact participation .

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

Learning In Focus

Panther Class embarked on a second adventure to Central London on Thursday 14th December 2023.

The central theme was to appreciate the architectural designs of Sir Norman Foster the architect.

A fantastic way to consolidate their learning over the last half term

A big thank you to the parents that made the trip possible by accompanying the staff

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

Our EYFS and KS1 Pupils put on a splendid Christmas Production on Wednesday 13th December 2023 entitled
"The Dinky Donkey"

Not only did they put on a good show, but all looked dazzling in their various costumes.
Well done and thank you everyone!

Below are some photos

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

Ho-Ho-Holy Trinity! Thank you for making this year's Christmas Fair such a success. The PTFA were overwhelmed to see so many of you getting into the festive spirit with us.

Thank you to all of you who came out to show your support for our school. Thank you to all the amazing volunteers and staff who went above and beyond. And of course, thank you to everyone who donated prizes and items. We couldn't have done it without you.

And a special thank you to the musicians of the Orchestra and Steel Pan Band – just a taste of the school's musical talent. They're a good introduction to this year's PTFA fundraising goal.

The PTFA is aiming to raise £5,000 for the school's music programme. This will help pay for the participation in festivals and events as well as help continue the school's exceptional music education that is so well regarded in the community and popular with the students.

After deduction of all expenses we are happy to announce that we raised a total of £500 for the school

But we need your help to reach this goal. We need volunteers like you to help put on these events and help us source free donations of prizes and supplies. The more donations we get, the less we have to buy. That means more money can go directly to supporting the school.

Look out for next year's PTFA events including the popular Valentine's Disco, warm weather Treat Sales, our Summer Fair, plus much more. Join our Parents & Friends of Holy Trinity Primary SW2 Facebook page for more information.

12 Top Tips for Children and Young People to Enjoy a TECH-FREE CHRISTMAS

The Christmas holidays are tailor made for families to enjoy relaxed quality time in each other's company – but with distractions like ping-pong phone notifications, the lure of games consoles and online Boxing Day sales, that can be more difficult than it sounds. Staying off our phones, laptops and tablets, however, can really help us to appreciate the things that genuinely matter at this special time of year. Follow our 12 top tips for a tech-free festive season – You'll be glad you did! Merry Christmas!

CHRISTMAS CRAFTING

Get out the paper, glue and scissors and have a go at hand-making cards or gift tags. You could also create your own decorations to add a uniquely personal touch to the Christmas tree.

NATURE QUEST

Try a scavenger hunt in the garden or your local park. Challenge yourself and your family to find natural treasures that are symbols of this time of year – like holly or pinecones, say.

CAROL KARAOKE

Sing your hearts out with a Christmas carol karaoke night. Pick out your favourite tunes and enjoy a musical celebration with family and friends.

WANDER DOWN MEMORY LANE

How about making a scrapbook filled with your favourite memories from Christmas gone by? Unleash your creativity while you enjoy reliving those magical holiday moments.

TRY REFLECTIVE JOURNALING

Put down your thoughts, feelings and reflections on the holiday in a notebook or diary – you could also list some of your main goals for the new year.

WRAP IT UP

Take time to get inventive with some Christmas gift wrapping. Break out the wrapping paper, ribbons and bows to make parceling up those presents into a creative adventure.

WALK IN A WINTER WONDERLAND

Bask in the great outdoors with some gentle walks over the holiday. The family can all wrap up warm as you add to your step count and savour the crisp winter air together.

BE A SEASONAL CHEF

Get the whole family working together in the kitchen for some Christmas cooking. Choose a recipe and whip up a festive feast that all of you can enjoy.

ENJOY A CHRISTMAS STORY

Christmas is a perfect time for sparkling stories. Get cosy and lose yourself in a brilliant book, from Dickens to Dr Seuss or a more modern favourite by Chris van Allsburg or Timothée de Fombelle.

SNOWY SCULPTURES

If we're fortunate enough to get a white Christmas this year, make the most of the opportunity by having a family snowman-building competition!

GAMES NIGHT GALA

Shove into some old-school fun with a tech-free games night. Classic board games and card games have stood the test of time for a reason!

GOODWILL TO ALL

You and your family could spend a day volunteering – perhaps at a food bank or helping a local charity. After all, kindness and thinking of others are part of what Christmas is all about.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about

WHATSAPP

AGE RESTRICTION
16+
in UK and Europe;
rest of the world 13+

...MSG ME...

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

With more than two billion active users exchanging texts, photos, videos and documents, as well as making voice and video calls, WhatsApp is the world's most popular messaging service. Its end-to-end encryption only allows messages to be viewed by the sender and any recipients: not even WhatsApp itself can read them. This privacy issue has been in the spotlight recently, as the UK's Online Safety Bill proposes to end such encryption on private messaging. WhatsApp is unwilling to do so and has reportedly considered withdrawing its service in the UK should this legislation go ahead.

EVOLVING SCAMS

WhatsApp's popularity makes it a lucrative hunting ground for scammers. Recent examples include posing as the target's child, requesting a money transfer because of a spurious 'emergency'. Plus a scam where fraudsters trigger a verification message by attempting to log in to your account, then (posing as WhatsApp) call or text to ask you to repeat the code back to them, giving them access.

CONTACT FROM STRANGERS

To start a chat, someone only needs the mobile number of the WhatsApp user that they want to message. If your child has ever given their number out to someone they don't know, that person could then contact them via WhatsApp. It's also possible that your child might be added to a group chat (by one of their friends, for example) containing other people that they don't know.

FAKE NEWS

WhatsApp's connectivity and ease of use allows news to be shared rapidly – whether it's true or not. To combat the spread of misinformation, messages forwarded more than five times on the app now display a 'Forwarded many times' label and a double arrow icon. This makes users aware that the message they've just received is far from an original – and might not be entirely factual, either.

ONLINE

'VIEW ONCE' CONTENT

The facility to send images or messages that can only be viewed once has led to some WhatsApp users sharing inappropriate images or abusive texts, knowing that the recipient can't re-open them later to use as evidence of misconduct. People used to be able to screenshot this 'disappearing' content – but a recently added WhatsApp feature now blocks this, citing increased privacy.

CHAT LOCK

Another new option allows users to store certain messages or chats in a separate 'locked chats' folder, saved behind a passcode, fingerprint or face ID authentication. The risk here is that this function creates the potential for young people to hide conversations and content that they suspect their parents wouldn't approve of (such as age-inappropriate material).

VISIBLE LOCATION

WhatsApp's 'live location' feature lets users share their current whereabouts, which can be helpful for friends meeting up or parents checking that their child's safely on the way home, for example. However, anyone in your child's contacts list or in a mutual group chat can also track their location – potentially letting strangers identify a child's home address or journeys that they make regularly.

Advice for Parents & Carers

...TYPING...

EMPHASISE CAUTION

Encourage your child to treat unexpected messages with caution: get them to consider, for example, whether the message sounds like something a friend or relative would really send them. Make sure they know never to share personal details over WhatsApp, and to be wary of clicking on any links in messages. Setting up two-step verification adds a further layer of protection to their WhatsApp account.

ADJUST THE SETTINGS

It's wise to change your child's WhatsApp settings (go to 'Privacy', then 'Groups') to specify which of their contacts can add them to group chats without needing approval: you can give permission to 'My Contacts' or 'My Contacts Except...'. Additionally, if your child needs to use 'live location', emphasise that they should enable this function for only as long as they need – and then turn it off.

THINKING BEFORE SHARING

Help your child to understand why it's important to stop and think before posting or forwarding something on WhatsApp. It's easy – and all too common – for content to then be shared more widely (even publicly on social media). Encourage your child to consider how an ill-judged message might damage their reputation or upset a friend who sent something to them in confidence.

CHAT ABOUT PRIVACY

Some parents like to check in with their child about how they're using WhatsApp, explaining that it will help to keep them safe. If you spot a 'Locked Chats' folder, you might want to talk about the sort of chats that are in there, who they're with and why your child wants to keep them hidden. Also, if your child has sent any 'view once' content, you could discuss their reasons for using this feature.
